

Clinical Management Quality Mark

Call for applications for the period 2010-2012

This award complements the Patient Partnership Quality Mark

The Clinical Management Quality Mark (CMQM) was launched in 2008 to complement the Patient Partnership Quality Mark (PPQM). The first CMQM recipients received their awards in January 2009 and now 21 practices hold this prestigious award. The purpose of this notice is to call for applications for the third round of CMQM awards. Successful applicants will be recognised with the award for the three-year period: 2011-2013.

The CMQM demonstrates to patients, external organisations and other healthcare professionals that your Practice shows excellence in its approach to maintaining and improving the quality of clinical services.

Successful applicants will be able to demonstrate an appropriately managed and systematic approach in respect of the following:

- Clinical audit
- Risk management
- Incident reporting
- Outcome measurement
- Patient satisfaction
- Emergency procedures
- Operational policies
